I was born and brought up in a village in northern Karnataka. Things were very simple in those days. If you didn't like a person, you could just tell him to his face why you were upset with him. If somebody helped you, you could show your gratitude without any reservation. If somebody did wrong, we asked for justice. There was no hide and seek when it came to feelings. Maybe it was not civilized or polished behaviour, but it was definitely a straightforward society and a simple life.

Q. 4) Summarize the following passage and suggest a suitable title. (09.W.13) (05 Marks)

Interpol is an international criminal police organization. The word 'Interpol' derived from the two words 'International' and 'Police'. Interpol is a strictly non-political, non-religious, non-racial organization in which the police forces of more than hundred nations co-operate with each other. Its headquarters are situated in Paris.

The job of Interpol is to trace criminals. According to international law, police of one country cannot enter the territory of another country to apprehend a criminal who, after committing a crime, has absconded there. Interpol helps in situations to trace out the criminals. Every country has its representative in Interpol. Interpol makes use of the most modern scientific means to catch the criminals. To trace and arrest criminals is the only function of this organization. It cannot be used for any political, military or religious activity.
