SECTION II- (TEXTUAL PASSAGES)

Q. 2: (A) Read the following passage and do the activities. (10 Marks)

PASSAGE NO. 1

A1. Complete the sentences:

1. The narrator was relieved to find out that _____
2. The mother langur was sitting on _____
3. The narrator gently laid the baby langur on _____
4. The baby langur was trembling like _____

I took the baby langur to our backyard and gently laid him on the floor inside the poultry coop. His body was full of deep bite marks and scratched. Blood was oozing from some of the wounds. The baby remained motionless. My father provided first aid to clean the wounds and stop the bleeding. I was relieved to find out that the baby was breathing, even though his breaths were shallow.

Splashes of cold water made the baby stir and after a few shaky attempts, he sat up. He was in state of shock and started trembling like a leaf in the wind. His two little twinkling eyes welled up with tears and he started to sob with a muffled cry - just like a human child would after experiencing trauma. I offered him a peeled banana which he accepted with his unsteady hand and began taking hesitant bites.

My attention was fixed on the revival of the baby langur. Suddenly, I had an uncanny feeling of being watched. I turned away from the coop and looked up. There sat the mother langur on our kitchen roof, watching every move I made. She simply sat there quietly, as if convinced that no harm was being done to her child.

A2. Arrange the sentences in order of their occurrence.

1. The narrator offered the baby langur a peeled banana.
2. The narrator turned away from the coop.
3. The narrator took the baby langur to the backyard.

PASSAGE No. 2

A1. Match the columns:

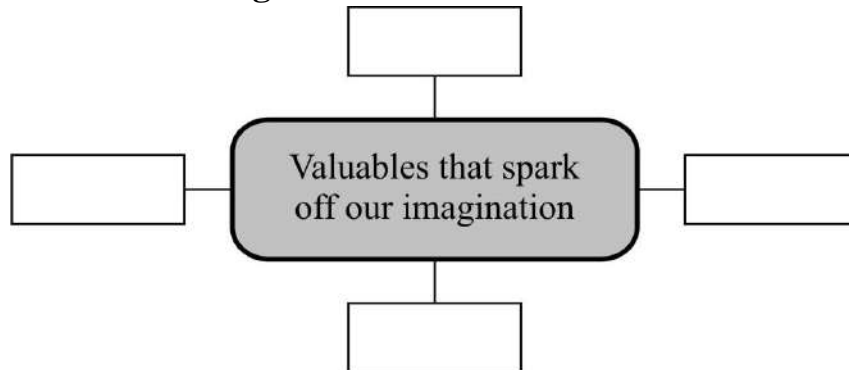

A	B
i) Life is like _____	a) impacts the result
ii) The quality and quantity of energy _____	b) a walk in the dark
iii) Success is _____	c) trumpet
iv) We need to bring _____	d) life images

Visions, wishes, intentions and dreams are all valuable. They spark off imagination and encourage us to define where we want to reach. In order to get there, however, we need to bring life images, down to earth and plan to execute our strategies. The quality and quantity of energy we put forth, directly impact the results. Life is something like a trumpet. If we don't put anything in, we can't get anything out.

Success is a walk in the dark. Finding the right footing, precisely mastering the skills and getting to the next place, all depend on how we approach and tackle the problem. The best way to get from where we are, to where we want to be is to find the footing of our next step. When we take the next step, it should support and hold us without a crack.

A2. Complete the web-diagram:

A3. Match the following words with their meaning:

A	B
i) strategy	to carry out
ii) execute	a musical instrument
iii) trumpet	a hole, an opening
iv) crack	plan of action

- 2) Success is a walk in the dark.
(Frame a wh-type question to get underlined part as answer.)

A5. Personal Response:

'Life is something like a trumpet'. Do you agree with this statement? Why?

PASSAGE No. 3

A1. State whether the following statements are True or False.

- 1) The young seagull was not confident about the ability of his wings.
- 2) The young seagull's parents guided and improved his siblings in the art of flying.
- 3) Nobody had come near the young seagull for twenty two hours.
- 4) His younger sister had caught her first herring and devoured it.

The young seagull was alone on his ledge. His two brothers and his sister had already flown away the day before. He had been afraid to fly with them.

Somehow when he had taken a little run forward to the brink of the ledge and attempted to flap his wings he became afraid. The great expanse of sea stretched down beneath, and it was such a long way down - miles down. He felt certain that his wings would ever support him; so he bent his head and ran away back to the little hole under the ledge where he slept at night. Even when each of his brothers and his little sister, whose wings were far shorter than his own, ran to the brink, flapped their wings, and flew away, he failed to muster up courage to take that plunge which appeared to him so desperate. His father and mother had come around calling to him shrilly, upbraiding him, threatening to let him starve on his ledge unless he flew away. But for the life of him he could not move.

That was twenty-four hours ago. Since then nobody had come near him. The day before, all day long, he had watched his parents flying about with his brothers and sister, perfecting them in the art of flight, teaching them how to skim the waves and how to dive for fish. He had, in fact, seen his older brother catch his first herring and devour it, standing on a rock, while his parents circled around raising a proud cackle. And all the morning the whole family had walked about on the big plateau midway down the opposite cliff taunting him for his cowardice.

A2. Complete:

Efforts made by the young seagull's parents to coax him to fly:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

A3. Use word/phrase from the passage to complete the sentences:

PASSAGE No. 4

A1. Who am I? (Identify the character/place from the passage)

- i. I am the washerman's son, who am I?
- ii. I am the sweeper, who am I?
- iii. I am the owner of the bank, who am I?
- iv. I am the place where you can deposit and withdraw money, what am I?

Nathu grumbled to himself as he swept the steps of the Pipalnagar Bank, owned by Seth Govind Ram. He used the small broom hurriedly and carelessly, and the dust, after rising in a cloud above his head settled down again on the steps. As Nathu was banging his pan against a dustbin, Sitaram, the washerman's son, passed by.

Sitaram was on his delivery round. He had a bundle of freshly pressed clothes balanced on his head.

'Don't raise such dust!' he called out to Nathu. 'Are you annoyed because they are still refusing to pay you an extra two rupees a month?'

'I don't wish to talk about it,' complained the sweeper-boy. 'I haven't even received my regular pay. And this is the twentieth of the month. Who would think a bank would hold up a poor man's salary? As soon as I get my money, I'm off! Not another week I work in this place.' And Nathu banged the pan against the dustbin several times, just to emphasize his point and giving himself confidence.

A2. Arrange the following sentences as per their sequence occurred in the passage:

- i. Nathu complained about his irregular pay.
- ii. Nathu used the small broom hurriedly.

- 1) Dr Hawking is considered equal to _____.
- 2) His writing is full of _____.
- 3) Dr Stephen's book 'A Brief History of Time' is _____.
- 4) Let us salute _____.

In spite of being considered Einstein's equal in intelligence, Dr Hawking is a very humble man. A simple, down to earth man, he has authored many books dealing with his awesome ideas keeping a layman in mind. His writing is full of wit and humour. His style is so lucid that non-scientists can also understand him. His book, "A Brief History of Time" is one of the best selling books of our times.

On being asked, how he feels about having the dreadful ALS, Dr Hawking, the quintessence of optimism and hope, says, "Not very different from the rest. I try and lead as normal a life as possible, and not think about my condition or regret the things it prevents me from doing, which are not many."

Dr Hawking firmly believes that in the next millenium, science will discover the core secrets of the universe, its origin, its history and maybe even predict its ultimate demise.

A1. Complete the following sentences:

- 1) 'Swami and Friends' is authored by _____.
2) The English used in the book is _____.
3) The simplicity is added _____.
4) The book is widely used in _____.

'Swami and Friends' by R. K. Narayan is not merely an interesting read that could be enjoyed from top to bottom, but the work attributes a lot of literary values even if it is a teen book.

'Swami and Friends' is a good read for the kids and teens alike. Also the book is widely used in the Asian continent as a study text for the students who study literature as a subject at schools. This does not mean that the book is filled with heavy grammar and technical jargon. Actually the truth is in contrary to this.

Swami and Friends is written in such simple English it is hard to imagine that it is a work of such a literary genius like R. K. Narayan. The English used in the book is both plain and simple, without any troubling words for the kids. Also the use of simple and short sentences adds to the simplicity of the book.

A1. Complete the following web.

Like many natural and historic cultural sites around the world, many World Heritage Sites are in danger of being destroyed or lost due to war, poaching, natural disasters like earthquakes, uncontrolled urbanization, heavy tourist traffic and environmental factors like air pollution and acid rain. World Heritage Sites that are in danger are inscribed on a separate List of World Heritage Sites in Danger which allows the World Heritage Committee to allocate resources from the World Heritage Fund to that site. In addition, different plans are put into place to protect and/or restore the site. If however, a site loses the characteristics which allowed for it to be originally included on the World Heritage List, the World Heritage Committee can choose to delete the site from the list. To learn more about World Heritage Sites, visit the World Heritage Centre's website at whc.unesco.org.

A2. Complete:

Efforts and steps taken by the World Heritage Committee to protect World Heritage sites are:

A1. Write from the passage.

i) Name of the writer's friend : _____

ii) Name of the Hotel they went : _____

iii) Name of the vehicle which won't be available in the rain:

iv) Name of the drink that Meena insisted the writer to have with her:

Finally, I managed to say, 'No Meena, I can't stay with you tonight. I have to attend a dinner. Give me your card and I'll keep in touch with you, I promise.'

For a moment, Meena looked disappointed, 'Let's go and have tea at least', she insisted.

'But Meena, it's pouring.'

'So what? We'll buy an umbrella and then go to the Grand Hotel,' she said.

'We won't get a taxi in this rain', I grumbled.

'So what? We'll walk'.

I was very surprised. This wasn't the same Meena I had known. Today, she seemed ready to make any number of adjustments.

We reached the Grand Hotel drenched. By then the only thought in my mind was to find out who or what had brought about such a change in the pessimistic Meena I had known. I was quite curious.

'Tell me Meena, is there a Prince Charming who has managed to change you so?'

Meena was surprised by my question. 'No, there isn't anyone like that', she said.

4. _____

I remember an eight-year-old girl we rescued from intergenerational forced labour from stone quarries. When she was sitting in my car right after her rescue, she asked me: "Why did you not come earlier?"

Her angry question still shakes me – and has the power to shake the whole world. Her question is for all of us. What are we doing? What are we waiting for? How many girls will we allow to go without rescue?

Children are questioning our inaction and watching our actions.

We need collective actions with a sense of urgency.

Every single minute matters, every single child matters, every single childhood matters.

Therefore, I challenge the passivity and pessimism surrounding our children. I challenge this culture of silence and this culture of passivity, this culture of neutrality.

I call upon all the governments, intergovernmental agencies, businesses, faith leaders, workers, teachers and NGOs, and each one of us, to put an end to all forms of violence against children. Slavery, trafficking, child marriages, child labour, sexual abuse, and illiteracy these things have no place in any civilised society.

PASSAGE No. 10

A1. State who/what?

- 1) Colours the entire sky.
- 2) Take new shapes with every passing moment.
- 3) Makes tree dance.
- 4) Changes its form according to the dictates of the sun and the wind.

We saw a tree bare of all leaves in the cold winter months. We thought its chapter was over. But three months passed, spring set in and the tree was back to its green majesty once again, full of leaves, flowers, birds and life. What if we too had the conviction that, however difficult things are right now, it will not remain so for ever. Remember, this too shall pass.

We saw an army of ants lugging a fly which was at least ten times the ant's size. The ants organized themselves around the fly, lifted it on frail feelers and carried it to quite a distance. Their teamwork and perseverance were impressive. What if we too are consistent, organized, focused...Spider webs are delicate, yet very strong. A rainbow colours the entire sky. Oysters take in a grain of sand they open up with a pearl. Innumerable stars shine across the infinite sky. Clouds take new shapes with every passing moment. The wind makes trees dance with unhindered passion. Water, without hint of ego, changes its form according to the dictates of the sun and the wind. When we see a caterpillar turn into a butterfly, a flower turn into a fruit, we experience the alchemy of nature... we touch it and become gold ourselves.

A2. Complete the web-diagram:

A3. Find the antonyms from the passage for the following words:

- i) weak ii) easy iii) hot iv) unimpressive

Write the appreciation of the following poem.

The World is Mine

Today on a bus, I saw a lovely girl with silken hair
I envied her, she seemed so gay, and I wished I was so fair
When suddenly she rose to leave, I saw her hobble down the aisle
O God, forgive me when I whine
I have two legs the world is mine
And then I stopped to buy some sweets
The lad who sold them had such charm
I talked with him, he seemed so calm, and if I were late, it would do no harm,
And as I left he said to me " I think you , you have been so kind "
It's nice to talk with folks like you. You see, I'm blind
O God forgive me when I whine
I have two eyes, the world is mine
Later walking down the street , I saw a child with eyes of blue
He stood and watched the others play ; it seemed he knew not what to do
I stopped a moment, then I said, why don't you join the others dear "
He looked ahead without a word, and then I knew he could not hear
O God forgive me when I whine
I have two ears, the world is mine
With legs to take me where I'll go
With eyes to see the sunset's glow
With ears to hear what I would know
O God forgive me when I whine
I'm blessed indeed , the world is mine

SECTION IV: Non-Textual Passage- 15 Marks

Passage-1

Q.1 (A) Read the following passage and do the activities. (10 Marks)

A1. State whether the following statements are True or False.

- i) The king's nature did not change due to sedentary lifestyle.
- ii) An astrologer predicted about the king's death.
- iii) The royal physicians cautioned the king.
- iv) The king was happy by the advice of the courtiers.

King Krishnadeva Raya would perform heavy exercises every morning. He regularly applied oil on his body and thereafter worked out till all the oil came out in the form of sweat. This was followed by a long ride on his horse. Once the king started leading a sedentary lifestyle. And he stopped exercising. He no longer went horse riding either. The king overate and as a result grew fat and heavy. The king's temperament also underwent a sea change. Noticing this, the royal physicians cautioned the king against the ill-effect of overeating and explained to him the risks posed by obesity. They advised the king to regulate his diet, exercise and take care of his health. The repeated advice he got from the physicians to eat less made him so angry that one day he announced a reward for anyone who could find him an easy cure.

A2. Complete the following :

A3. Match the column A with their Adjectives in column B:

Column A	Column B

Passage-2

Q.2 (A) Read the following passage and do the activities. (10 Marks)

(A1) Complete the following sentences:

- (i) Many of our young people spend more time before
- (ii) Too often this happens to us much realize it ourselves.
- (iii) Writer considers TV as one of the achievements.
- (iv) Television also provides us with a fuller and coverage of current events.

We often hear this statement that “many of our young people spend more time before their T.V. sets, than they do in their classrooms or with their textbooks.” A bit exaggerated though it may sound, it is nearly true and our teenagers are being influenced considerably by the electronic media, particularly the T.V. the television has become the single most powerful influence in the lives of many our youngsters today. Too often this happens to us much before we realize it ourselves.

I am in no way trying to deny the many advantages of T.V., or minimize its manifold contributions to our world. On the other hand, I consider T.V. as one of the greatest scientific achievements of our times, bringing people closer than ever before.

Television’s use of the modern satellite technology brings today even the remotest regions of the world to us in seconds, making the world a small (global) village. As we know television also provides us with a fuller and more impressive coverage of current events than any other media.

(A3) Find from the passage the synonyms of:

- (i) refuse -
- (ii) nearer -

(A4) Do as directed.

(1) Our teenagers are being influenced considerably by the electronic media.

a) Advise b) carry a lamp c) minister d) travel
4. During her time, it was considered.....for women to work outside their homes.
a) advisable b) appropriate c) wrong d) correct.

During the Crimean War (1853 to 1856), Florence Nightingale was put in charge of nursing. She went to the battlefield with 38 nurses. The hospital was a huge, dirty barracks building. She got men to clean it up and managed to get the supplies they needed. She carried a lamp as she walked the halls of the battlefield hospital and became known as ‘the lady with the lamp’.

She saved 1000’s of lives. People called her a ministering ‘angel’ in the hospitals, but she herself became ill with a disease she got there. In her later years, she was not able to travel, but people came to her from all over the world to get advice from her about nursing. She has gone down in history as the world’s first ‘nurse’. And she did all this at a time when it was considered wrong for women to work outside their homes!

- iii- It was made by the famous seventh century traveler
- iv- It was like a

When we read the words ‘journey to the west’, we naturally start thinking about a journey to western countries like England and America. But ‘west’ is a relative term. For countries to our east, WE are the west! This particular journey that we are going to read about was actually a journey from China to our own country! It was made by the famous seventh century traveler Yuan Chwang. In those days, travelling from China to India was not an easy task – one had to travel thousands of miles on foot or horseback, crossing deserts, crossing snow-clad mountains, crossing strange, unfamiliar regions, using roads where bandits and robbers roamed – who would do it? But Yuan Chwang had a dream. He wanted to take Buddhist scriptures from India to his homeland in China. It was like a pilgrimage to him.

vi) is an important step in protecting and developing our forests.

vii) Our forest covers of country's land area.

viii) Forests are important sources of

Our forests are important sources of natural wealth, covering one-fifth of country's land area. They supply the timber for the railways, buildings and furniture making. They also supply the fuel for cooking and the bamboo for paper making. Medicinal herbs also come from the forests.

In olden days, our wise men and philosophers had their ashrams in the forests. These ashrams were centres of knowledge and learning. Those sages had done an excellent job of maintaining our forests. So we had wonderful forests.

Unfortunately, forests were ruthlessly cut down in the past few years. While the forests are disappearing, the demand for timber is growing. We must, therefore, protect and develop our forests. Vanmahotsav is an important step in this direction. It is observed for a week in July every year. During this week, lakhs of saplings are planted throughout the country. This is being done to restore our fast disappearing forests.

Still, deforestation poses a serious threat to forests on the earth. Deforestation causes soil erosion, sudden floods and global warming.

Passage-7

Q.7. (A) Read the following passage and do the activities: (10 Marks)

A1. State if you Agree or Disagree with the following statements:

- 1- Read as many books in English as your duty.
- 2- Extensive reading normally helps you to create interest and improves your English.
- 3- Generally guess the meaning of words from context.
- 4- We cannot learn to speak a language better with the help of a book.

To read a lot is essential. It is stupid not to venture outside the examination 'set books' or the textbooks you have chosen for intensive study. Read as many books in English as you can, not as a duty but for pleasure. Do not choose the most difficult books you find, with the idea of listing and learning as many new words as possible: choose what is likely to interest you and be sure in advance, that it is not too hard. You should not have to constantly looking up new words in the dictionary, for that deadens interest and checks real learning.

Look up a word here and there, but as a general policy try to push ahead, guessing what words mean from the context. It is extensive and not intensive reading that normally helps you to get interested in extra reading and thereby improve your English. You should enjoy the feeling which extensive reading gives. As you read you will become more and more familiar with words and sentence patterns you already know, understanding them better and better as you meet them in more and more context, some of which may differ only slightly from others.

Some people say that we cannot learn to speak a language better with the help of a book. To believe that the spoken language and written language are quite different things. This is not so.

- 2- The children in Thiyya house start the circus training at an
- 3- The and were the legendary names in the field of circus.
- 4- Thiyyas made the best in India.

A small coastal town in north Kerala, Thalasseri has been the home of circus artistes and many circus owners in India. Legendary names such as the Kamala Circus, the Great Raymon Circus from which emerged other circuses like the Gemini, Amar and Orient are all associated with Thalasseri.

The Thiyyas are a community of farmers in Thalasseri. Their feats in circus gave rise to many popular circuses. Every Thiyya house had a son or daughter working in a circus. Starting training at an early age, they excelled in balancing feats, trick-riding, and trapeze. Agile of limb and nimble in movements, the Thiyyas made the best acrobats in India.

They toured India and abroad, attracting crowds. But in the last two decades the circus has lost out to the cinema and TV in popularity. Mounting costs of running a circus, lack of incentives from the government and agitations by animal activists are threatening the circus' survival.

- 1) The passage is about inside the Chilika lake.
- 2) The birds arrive in the bird sanctuary with
- 3) Thousands of birds migrate to Chilika from
- 4) The birds stay in Nalabana Bird Sanctuary for till monsoon sets in.

With the onset of winter, the picturesque Nalabana Bird Sanctuary inside the Chilika Lake is agog with the presence of thousands of migratory birds from far away Siberia, Iraq, Iran and Central Europe.

The birds arrive at their winter abode inside the bird sanctuary, which is spread over 15.5 sq. km. to stay for five months till monsoon sets in. This year the migration of winter birds has begun two weeks ahead due to disturbances and scarcity of food in their native places.

The birds have taken shelter in artificial mounds inside the sanctuary which had been constructed by the wildlife division as the core area of the sanctuary.

According to wildlife officers, the migration of birds to the Chilika Lake, the second largest in the world, has increased over the years due to the conducive atmosphere prevailing there.

A survey conducted by the Chilika wildlife division has revealed that the number of migratory birds arriving at the lake has increased to over two million. Many rare birds like the Smew Duck Mallard, Nakata, Marbled Teal and Goliath Heron have also been spotted last year.

Application of pesticides and chemicals in the fields and loss of natural habitat affect bird migration. Birds and animals have a relationship and their harmonious presence is beneficial for the continuity of a sanctuary.

There are four different types of soil. They are Laterite soil, sandy desert soil, black cotton soil and alluvial soil. The formation of laterite soil takes place due to the washing of silica, salt, organic matter and ‘accumulation of sesquioxides’. Sandy desert soil, on the other hand, is formed due to the action of winds. Mechanical weathering of igneous rocks leads to the formation of black cotton soil. Last but not the least is the rich alluvial soil that is obtained through the depositing process of rivers.

A1- Verbal to Non-verbal:

Given below is a paragraph outlining the uses of the motorcycle. Transfer the information in the form of a web diagram or map:

The Uses of Motorcycle

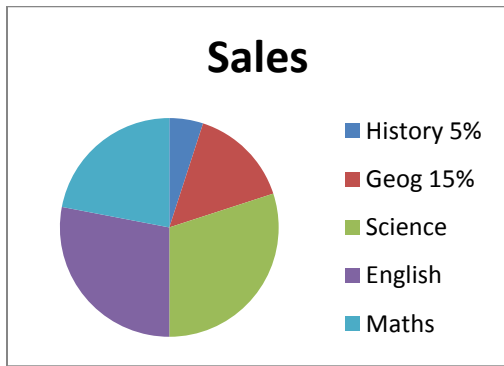

The motorcycle has become a vehicle that has many uses not only in the town but also in the countryside. For one thing, it saves a lot of time. Even in towns and villages, it is very useful for college students who have to travel long distances, instead of depending on the irregular bus services. There are many people in towns and cities who keep motorcycle for their servants to go out and buy provisions. Workers in cities and even farmers in villages use the motorcycle frequently. This is because the motorcycle helps to get the works done speedily. Of course, in order to drive the motorcycle, a driving license is compulsory. Also one must use a helmet and drive carefully to avoid serious accidents.

(OR)

(A2) Verbal to Non-verbal: (05)

Read the following paragraph and complete the table by putting in correct information. Suggest a suitable title.

While preparing to plant trees in a residential colony, highways or anywhere, one should consider three factors taking decision. What kind of (species) trees, where to plant and what kind of soil. He should consider the qualities of a tree such as pattern of branching and its height. If it is a school, you need shade-giving trees of moderate height so that children can play under them and not be hurt when they climb on to them. In residential colonies, trees with thick branches, like eucalyptus or Ashoka should be chosen to control pollution and trap dust. Similarly, the nature of the soil too should be considered. If you are planting trees by the road side, it withstands the topical monsoon and provides shade in summer. On highways the well-known choice would be the native trees tamarind or peepal. Being hardly, they do not need much care. Birds and animals interact more easily with native trees than the exotics. Villagers too consider such native trees to be sacred as the abode of gods.

Title:

Kinds of trees	Where to plant	Uses
1) Shade-giving (short trees)	School	a) Children climb and play b) Enjoy shade of a tree
2) (tall trees)	a) b).....
3).....	Residential colonies	a) Withstand the wind b)
4)..... (native trees)	Rode side	a) Birds and animals interact more with the native trees. b) Villagers consider them sacred.
