I was walking along the footpath with my friends when we came to a signal crossing. The lights were green and heavy traffic was just whizzing past us. Suddenly I saw a blind old man trying to cross the street. I rushed to his aid and holding his hand explained about the green signal. When the signal turned to red, heavy vehicles stopped, but few cyclists paid no heed to the signal and rode past almost throwing the poor man down. I raised the man held him steadily and crossed the road with him.
